OHIO IOTA OF SIGMA PHI EPSILON AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO — FEBRUARY 2008

Bowers '78, Seizert '74, Springer '52, Thurber '52 To Be Honored at 8th Alumni/Senior Dinner

SigEps will gather on Thursday, April 24th at the Spaghetti Warehouse for the 8th annual Alumni/Senior Dinner. Cocktail hour is at 6:00 P.M., with dinner at 7:00.

Dr. Tom Bowers will receive the Volunteer Excellence Award and Jerry Seizert will receive the Career Achievement Award.

The Ohio Iota Alumni Board is instituting a new award this year called the Founder's Circle Award. This new recognition is to honor those members of Chi Beta Chi and Sigma Phi Epsilon who have served loyally for many years to maintain relationships among the brothers and to continue the mantle of leadership that has been the major hallmark of the organization since its inception. Two men have been selected as this year's honorees.

Richard L. Springer '52 has been continually active in fraternity work throughout his professional life. He has been an active XBx alumnus, returning often to Toledo, and has served loyally with the SigEp chapter at Johns Hopkins in an active alumni role. Brother Springer and his wife have also established the Richard L. and Gail Springer Sigma Phi Epsilon Leadership Fund for Ohio Iota chapter members to help defray costs of sending brothers to Conclave, Carlson Leadership Academies and other leadership programs throughout the country.

Donald N. Thurber '52 is honored for his continued work to maintain XBx records and contacts throughout his career. He treasure store of XBx and early Sig Ep memorabilia is remarkable and his persistence in maintaining contact with brothers over the years has helped us in great measure. Don is best known professionally as the author of the D'Nealian Manuscript Alphabet which is used in school systems throughout the United States.

In addition, the recent graduates of Ohio Iota will be welcomed into the alumni ranks. The dinner cost is $20, payable at the door with a cash bar. To RSVP, call Ron Binder at 419-787-8191. Make plans to join your brothers for fellowship and to honor two outstanding alumni!

Cheers for '07 Homecoming!

SigEps gathered from far and wide this past Fall to celebrate Homecoming 2007. A reception was held at the chapter house in the Greek Village on Friday night with several recent alums returning to see the changes in the house and to meet the 26 new brothers this Fall! The weather Saturday was just perfect for the annual Parade Viewing Party at Tim '82 and Sarah '83 Croak's house. Many alumni gathered with their families to watch the SigEp float make its way down the street and stop the parade to do the fraternity cheer. Undergraduates and alumni alike filled the street to do the familiar cheer, much to the delight of the large crowd! A cookout ensued at the house for alumni and undergraduate parents where tours were conducted of a very clean house (just in time for parents). Thanks to all the alumni who returned to the many Homecoming events.

Alumni & Volunteer Board Perspective

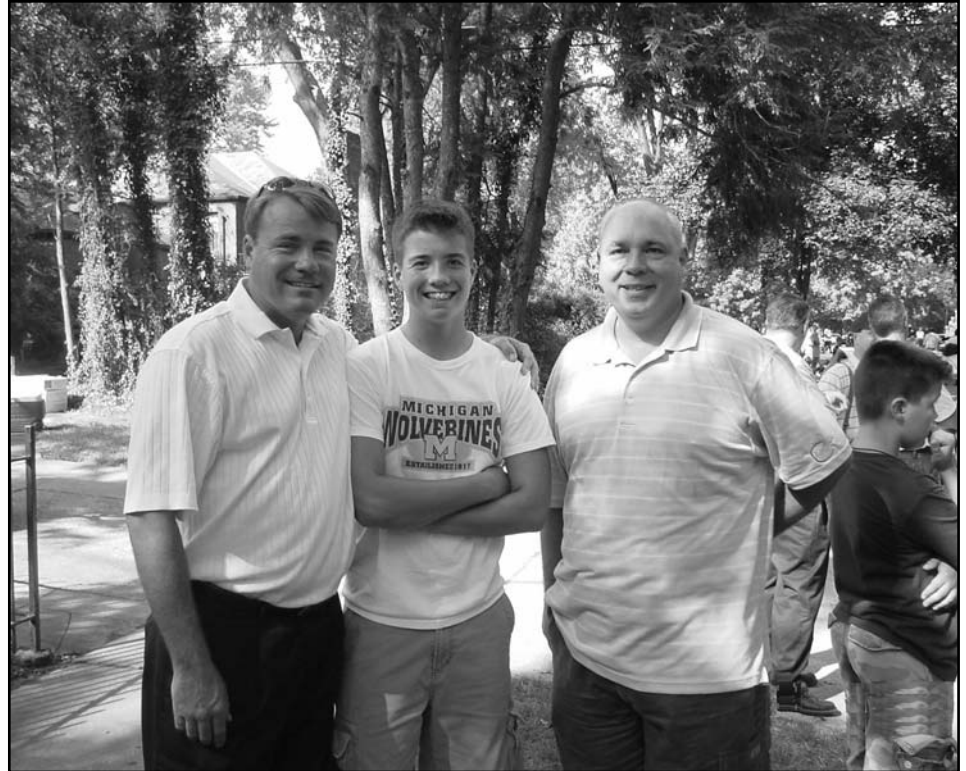

Dear Brothers,
As alumni of the Ohio Iota SigEp Chapter you can be justly proud of the current undergraduate chapter. They continue the tradition of excellence on campus, in academics, and in intramural athletics and community service. This past fall they maintained a 3.199 GPA with an 80 man chapter, ranking number one for all fraternities. They continue to dominate intramurals and are at or near the top in community service activities. This past fall they selected a 27 man new member class and have plans for another 20 new men this spring.

As alumni from this chapter we hope that you know that Ohio Iota has more men serving on Sig Ep boards and as chapter counselors throughout the country than almost any other chapter. Interested? Just let us know and we will put you in contact with the people that can make it happen. You did not just join a fraternity for just your college years – it is a lifetime experience, and your service will be greatly appreciated.

Nationally Sig Ep has developed a group of training modules for alumni volunteers. Just go to the Sig Ep national website www.sigep.org and click on alumni and volunteers and then training resources and see the modules which include: Sig Ep Today, Volunteer Leadership, Mentoring, Goal Setting, Member Development, and Recruitment. They take just a short time to complete, but will help you to be up-to-date to help out a chapter near you.

The Ohio Iota Alumni Board has been very diligent in their efforts to work with the chapter to assist them in maintaining a quality presence on the UT campus. Ted Behnken has reported on the nearly doubling of our investments over the last decade. Scholarship donations are at an all time high, and gifts from each spring's solicitation for alumni operations and chapter support continue at a steady pace.

The alumni work hand-in-hand with the undergraduates to upgrade the D-1 facility in the McComas Village. Last spring three couches, end tables, a large curio cabinet for historical XBX and SFE items, and a media cabinet were added and this fall a 60" flat screen TV was donated by some of our young alumni. A new library table was added and hopefully the university will replace the carpeting for the entire first floor this year. If there are any out there who wish to purchase specific items, please contact rstjohn@bex.net. Our next major project will be to develop the Residential Learning Community space in the basement with the faculty fellow office and a conference room space. Plans have been completed for the project.

It has been a great pleasure to see all of the alumni who have returned to the campus this year for the various Open Houses sponsored by the chapter, for Homecoming, or just to drop in to the house to see what is happening. The visits always seem to include looking at the composites which date back to the early '70s which hang proudly on the walls of the house. One project now getting under way is the refurbishing of the many scrapbooks that have been done over the years. A new cabinet to properly store them is to be built soon in the Residential Learning Community.

Plans are underway for the Senior/Alumni Appreciation Dinner on Thursday, April 24 at the Spaghetti Warehouse. Four alumni will be honored for their contributions to the chapter and to the university community at that dinner. The Volunteer Excellence Award will be awarded to Dr. Tom Bowers '00 for his outstanding service to the Ohio Iota chapter. The Career Achievement Award will be awarded to Mr. Jerry Seizert '00 for his outstanding contributions to his profession. Two XBX brothers, Don Thurber and Richard Springer, will be the first recipients of the new Founder's Circle Award. Mark your calendar now for the Senior/Alumni Appreciation Dinner to be held on April 24. More and more alumni are attending this event each year. We have returned to the Thursday format at the request of many alumni who have attended.

Any Chi Beta Chi or Sig Eps who have historical items they would like to donate to the chapter and have displayed at the house, please contact me at rstjohn@bex.net or 419-478-0471. We are especially looking for a XBX sweat heart pin and old Sig Ep pins, sweat heart and mother's club pins and little sister pins and party favors. Any old trophies that you might have are also welcome additions to our collection.

When you are in the area, please take the time to drop in to see a great chapter in operation on the University of Toledo campus. If not before, see you at the Senior/Alumni dinner in April. If you are interested in joining the alumni board, please contact one of the current board members to place your name on the meeting contact list. Additional members are very welcome.

Ohio Iota Continues Strong Presence on UT Campus

Dear Brothers,
As another year comes to a close at Ohio Iota, I am pleased to inform you of the numerous accomplishments the chapter has made. Following the ideals of the balanced man, Ohio Iota continues to excel in all aspects of fraternal and collegiate life.

Our chapter began a strong fall semester with a recruitment class of 27 men. This new diverse group of leaders, scholars, and athletes ensures the continuous success of SigEp at Toledo. With currently 75 undergraduate men, the chapter remains one of the largest on campus. Congratulations to all brothers of SigEp on a great fall recruitment, with an even stronger one to come in the spring!

On a Scholastic level, we continue to raise the bar. In the spring of 2007, the chapter rose to an overall GPA of 3.34, which led all of Greek life at Toledo. This accomplishment placed the chapter again in Phi Beta Kappa Wheelhouse and as one of the top scholastic SigEp chapters in the nation.

SigEps at Toledo continue to be involved and represent us well in many organizations throughout campus. Most recently, Brother David Gonzalez was elected as Vice President of Inter-Fraternal Council. In Blue Key, Brothers Mathew Bauer and Justin Carr represent SigEp as two of the top 13 leaders on campus. Brothers Andrew Doughty, Niketas Katsaros and Justin Carr are all also members of Mortar Board. Congratulations to those men and all others who represent Ohio Iota proudly on campus.

Showing that SigEp's at Toledo are more than just a sound mind, the brothers took the meaning of sound body

New Members for Fall 2007

Ohio Iota is proud to announce 27 new members for Fall 2007. These new members, along with the current members, take the chapter to over 75! The Alumni & Volunteer Board held their usual welcome dessert for the new members at the home of Dr. Ron Binder '83 where the board and undergraduate leaders talked of their history with SigEp and why they chose to join Ohio Iota. We are excited about these new members and welcome them to the Ohio Iota SigEp family!

to a new level in the fall. Under the direction of Brother Mathew Bauer, Ohio Iota transformed Toledo's Glass Bowl stadium into an NFL style combine.

This event, now known as "SigEp Combine", was an immediate success. Events like the 40-yard dash and pushup competition challenged brothers to the fullest of their abilities, while additionally giving recruits the chance to meet the chapter members.

This fall we continued our philanthropy partnership with YouthAIDS by hosting its forth-annual "SigEp Stromboli" night. Over five hundred students and community members attended the one night event at the SigEp house. Weeks of hard work by all the brothers paid off well with our chapter raising over $2,500 dollars for children with AIDS.

Just as SigEp challenges its brothers to better themselves, likewise Ohio Iota in the last year has been challenged to better our chapter house. With generous help from alumni and undergraduate donations, we were able to get a new large flat screen television on the first floor. Over the last summer, House Manager Aaron Alt also remodeled the entire first floor bathroom. Thank you to everyone who has donated their time and money in ensuring that our house remains the best on campus.

The biggest news of the year though, came last summer in Atlanta. While attending the 50th Grand Chapter Conclave in Atlanta, Georgia, Ohio Iota took home its third straight Buchanan Cup, and number seven overall!

This prestigious award is the highest honor for a chapter. I would like to thank everyone from alumni to undergraduates who worked to make this happen. Congratulations Brothers on this distinct honor! Look for SigEps at Toledo to continue to build on this success within the coming year. I am extremely excited for the opportunities and challenges that lay ahead for us at Ohio Iota.

Fraternally,
Christopher R. Lehmann '08
Chapter President

Parent Perspective

Parent's Corner

Dear Parents,
It's going to be 30 years this spring that most of my pledge class graduated from UT. Made me think to try and get a hold all of them and see what they were up to. I have located and contacted all of the other 11 but one. Some ended up far away while others stayed close to Toledo. A couple I still stayed in touch with so it wasn't really that hard, while a couple it took some digging and work to find. I will be sending out a note to all that I found and maybe try and get them to come to Homecoming this next year. I recommend that all past pledge classes take this upon themselves and locate their fellow pledge class members. This would also help the chapter update their data base.

Being a Sig Ep and attending UT will help down the road in life. Sometimes it's not always what you know rather than it's who you know in addition to what you know.

We have Song Fest coming up on Saturday, April 12th (Remember we won last year and the chapter will be defending their title). The next day on Sunday, April 13th will be a Parent Luncheon, where all members invite their parents to attend. I enjoyed seeing who my son was a member with of the greatest fraternity on campus. It would be nice this year to have each member introduce themselves, their year, their major, what city they were from and who their parents are.

As a parent or past brother, come by the House and see how great the Sig Eps still are.

Sincerely,

ALUMNI NEWS & NOTES

The 18 December 2007 issue of the Blade reports that Brother Fred Zimmerman, football (1963-65) star lineman on both offense and defense will be one of 10 inducted into the UT Athletic Hall of Fame. This is the 2008 Varsity "T" Hall of Fame Class.

Zimmerman was selected first-team All-MAC as a defensive end his senior season (1965) and was winner of the Nicholson Award (team MVP in 1965). Zimmerman was drafted by the AFL's Houston Oilers, and the NFL's Atlanta Falcons drafted him in 1966. He later signed with the St. Louis Cardinals.

sororities in North America).

Donovan Nichols (BA '04, MED '06) was featured with a full-page story (below) in the fall 2007 issue of The University of Toledo Alumni Magazine. The story, called "Rocket Rebel Excels in Vegas," talks about his loyalty to his alma mater and rekindling the flame in Las Vegas with other alumni members out there. "His office gives him away: diploma framed with a photo of the bell tower, Rocky the Rocket doll, a UT picture frame...." Donovan was also honored in the UT Homecoming Parade on Saturday 6 October, representing the UT alumni chapter that he started in Las Vegas.

Also featured in the fall issue of the magazine was Brandt England (Bus '87), shown at right.

BRANDT ENGLAND (BUS '87)

He walked away from the corporate world almost 13 years ago and never looked back. You might call Las Vegas entrepreneur Brandt England a landed venture capitalist, with land the bedrock of his success.

"I started doing land and real estate investing by buying and selling houses," says the Fortune 100 veteran who didn't care for corporate bureaucracy and regimentation. "Las Vegas was the nation's fastest growing market ever — a 100 percent appreciation rate in a little over three years. Our group of partners was able to take advantage of that."

Vegas is still growing, with some 7,000 new residents each month and an additional 35,000 hotel rooms scheduled to open in the next couple of years. The recent housing bust may have closed one door, he admits, but others are opening. "It used to be you bought, fixed and sold houses, but now it's better to buy houses, hold them, rent them and look to sell them in three to seven years," he says.

"In business you can take advantage of up cycles or down cycles as long as you're willing to change your strategy."

He speaks warmly of his UT days when he served as Student Body president, and of his professors — "I still remember Dr. Longenecker, [Dr.] Bill Rudd, Professor Wedding and Dr. Simonetti." His UT experience was invaluable, he says, in both his business and personal life: "People offered practical perspectives that I still use."

With approximately 330 UT alumni in greater Las Vegas, he says, it's easy to keep in touch. "Our nanny is an alum, too — it's truly a small world!"

Rocket rebel excels in Vegas

Winning alumni award —

Odds are even though Donovan Nichols (BA '04, MED '06) is the adviser for the Rebel Pride Council at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV), his loyalty remains with his alma mater. His office gives him away: diploma framed with a photo of the bell tower, Rocky the Rocket doll, UT picture frame ...

"Because The University of Toledo has been such an influential piece of my life that I don't want to let go, I decided to rekindle that flame out in Las Vegas with other alumni members who are out here," he says.

Nichols started fanning the fire in fall 2006. "We're still building. We sent out mailers to 330 alumni and heard back from 40 to 50 people," he says.

Football viewing parties followed when the Rockets played nationally televised games, and UT alumni chilled together when the Toledo Storm took on the Las Vegas Wranglers in hockey.

"We're working to diversify events so that people who don't like sports can still spend time with other alumni," says the resident of Henderson, Nev.

In May Nichols received the Alumni Association's Outstanding Volunteer of the Year Award and the Chapter of the Year Award for his efforts.

He's also hit big with his job as program coordinator for student involvement in UNLV's Student Involvement & Activities Office.

"One of my initiatives was to create an Involvement Center, a one-stop shop for students who are looking to get involved. I train undergraduate student peer advisers who connect UNLV students with involvement opportunities that support their interests and help them find their path or their passion for what they want to do with their careers," Donovan says.

He's mapped out his future. "My ultimate goal is to be a vice president for student life at a university and a national motivational speaker."

Along the way, he won't forget where he's been. "I believe strongly in the 'pay it forward' concept," Nichols says. "Blue Crew secret spirit society is the legacy Jason Rodriguez and I created and I left at UT to continually build Rocket pride. I will continue to advise each new batch of Blue Crew members to keep the spirit vision alive."
